Saint Gianna Molla

Saint Gianna Beretta Molla (October 4, 1922 – April 28, 1962) was an Italian pediatrician, a working mom, professional woman, and a loving wife who is best known for refusing both an abortion and a hysterectomy (surgery to remove her reproductive organs) when she was pregnant with her fourth child, despite knowing that continuing with the pregnancy could result in her death. Gianna specialized in obstetrics/gynecology and pediatrics; therefore she gave special attention to mothers, babies, the elderly, and the poor. She gave generous service to Catholic Action, a group of lay Catholics in Italy that sought to encourage a Catholic influence on society. She was canonized as a saint on May 16, 2004 by Pope John Paul II. Saint Gianna's feast day is April 28. She is a patron saint of mothers, physicians, and preborn children.

Saint Gianna Molla

For All

The church recognizes saints and those deemed "blessed," not to give them bragging rights in heaven, but to offer us models of holiness for our earthly pilgrimage.

- How does Saint Gianna help us with our earthly pilgrimage?
- Saint Gianna is the patron saint of what special intentions?

Why Is It?

That Saint Gianna Molla is pictured on the patch holding a child?

For Older Youth

Saint Gianna gave generous service to Catholic Action. Learn about Catholic Action (also known as Catholic Social Action), especially during her lifetime in Italy. What current issues does Catholic Social Action address?

Saint Gianna was a working mom, professional woman, and a loving wife. Her vocation was marriage and cooperation with God in "forming a truly Christian family." Have a conversation with your mother or grandmother about how she balances her responsibilities.

Learn more about the vocation of marriage as taught by the Catholic Church. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has an entire website dedicated to it.

Social Action

- Learn about two Catholic Social Action issues. Share what you learn with someone else.
- Perform a service project. You could collect winter coats for needy children, or organize a baby shower for a local shelter or home for pregnant women, collecting baby blankets and clothing. Or you could visit the elderly in your community on a regular basis. Provide service to your local food bank; assist with collecting and sorting contributions. Organize and provide babysitting while parents attend Mass or other meetings in your parish.
